Believe in a Fun and Fit Baltimore

There are 46 recreation centers throughout Baltimore stretching north, south, east and west of the inner city. Throughout the city's diverse urban landscape, our centers feature a multitude of programs for children and young adults. Each center offers an array of activities aimed at enlightening and entertaining Baltimore's youth. These activities include relay games, adult aerobics, arts and crafts, Girl Scouts, cheerleading, weightlifting, football, basketball, cooking classes, modeling classes, talent shows, martial arts, sports clinics, SAT prep classes, teen mentoring, ceramics classes, computer skills, field trips, African dance and drumming, life skills, tap dancing, creative writing, plays, gym activities and more!

Each recreation center has its own unique activity schedule. Check out the activity schedule within this guide for more details. You can also call or walk into your local center to get more information regarding their specific activities and hours of operation.

After-School Programs

The Bureau of Recreation offers after-school programs at all 46 recreation centers. The programs serve over 5,000 young people in Baltimore City and provide homework assistance, mentoring, tutoring, classes and clubs in sports, recreation, chess, arts and crafts, and dozens of other subjects. These safe and engaging programs primarily serve children ages 5-12. A select number of sites offer after-school programming for the teen population. For more information, please call your local recreation center or (410) 396-7000.

Be-More Studios

James McHenry Recreation Center
911 Hollins St.
Baltimore, MD 21223
(410) 396-5016

The Bureau of Recreation is pleased to announce that the James McHenry Recreation Center now houses a 24-channel digital sound studio. The studio has the capability of doing complete basic recordings, including commercials, jingles, 30-60 second spots, recording live music, on-site recordings of conferences, shows, hip hop production and sampling. Certain criteria, including but not limited to maintaining a good academic standing in school, must be met for children to participate.

Guitar Lessons will be offered for one-on-one sessions with Mr. Kevin E. Robinson. Please call to set up a schedule and prices. Guitars will be available for student use. For more information, please contact James McHenry Recreation Center at (410) 396-5016.

Computer Information Systems Operations (CISO)

3001 East Drive
Baltimore, MD 21217
(410) 396-6697

The CISO division is responsible for providing information technology support, resources, systems, analysis/design, planning, computer programming, office automation, as well as customer/help desk support and personal computer training. The Baltimore City Department of Recreation and Parks operates 30 computer labs that facilitate after-school programs for students and provides job training and hands-on computer learning for adults and senior citizens. Computer users can utilize Corel Office Suite, Microsoft Office Suite, Printshop, Carmen Sandiego, Reader Rabbit, Math Rabbit, Cornerstone and Lightspan learning tools, Encarta Africana, Mavis Beacon, electronic encyclopedias, homework and research paper assistance, SAT/GED Prep training and much more. For more information or lab hours, please call the center in your community.

Volunteer and part-time opportunities are available through our Cooperative Student Internship Program. This program is designed to equip college students majoring in Computer Information, Technology Education Sciences, Information Systems and other computer related disciplines with valuable hands-on skills to complement their resumes. For more information about computer lab usage and opportunities, please call (410) 396-6697, or e-mail inquiries to Joseph.Queen@baltimorecity.gov.

School-Age Child Care and Tiny Tots

Stella Clanton, Program Coordinator
 3001 East Drive
 Baltimore, MD 21217
 (410) 396-7001

The Division of School-Age Child Care operates two childcare centers, licensed by the Department of Human Resources, Office of Child Care Administration, and operates year-round, Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The centers provide quality summer programs for children ages 5 - 14 years old. The staff is professionally trained and is dedicated to providing care and guidance in a nurturing environment.

Nutritional meals (breakfast and snack) are served daily. Children are engaged in age-appropriate activities designed to meet the cognitive, physical, behavioral and social developmental growth needs of the individual child. Our Fun & Fitness Program provides opportunities for kids, including yoga, dance, hiking, roller-skating and 4H nutrition, to promote healthy lifestyles and nutritional habits that will last a lifetime. Other activities include science experiments, marital arts, crafts, dramatic play, cooking, special events, trips and much more!

The cost of care is $3 per hour (2-6 hours daily) and $20 per day for a full day of care (6 1/2 hours or more). Childcare vouchers from the Department of Social Services are accepted, and a tax identification number is provided for your tax purposes. For additional information, please contact the School-Age Child Care Center near you.

Social Events For Teens

Teen Night

The Bureau of Recreation has developed several teen initiatives to attract young people to recreation centers and is working aggressively to target youth between the ages of 13-17 to become more involved in programs. Teen Night encourages young people to visit recreation centers during the evening hours and to participate in a wide range of activities designed exclusively for teens. Teen Night is held at various recreation centers every Friday night from 7 p.m. - 1 a.m., except during inclement weather or holidays. Each Teen Night program is designed with input from young people. Past activities have included movie nights, fashion shows, creative dance and a host of other exciting programs. This program is currently rotated through each of the 46 recreation centers throughout the year. For more information about this and other teen programs, please contact your local recreation center or call (410) 396-7900.

Teen Dances

Teens are invited to mix it up on the dance floor with their peers at dances offered throughout the season at a variety of recreation centers. For exact dates, times and other requirements, please call or visit your local recreation center.

Senior Citizens Division

Jo Ann Cason
Recreation Program Coordinator
John Booth Senior Center

Baltimore, MD 21224
(410) 396-2920

The Department of Recreation and Parks' Senior Citizens Division offers many life-enriching recreational programs and events for Baltimore's adults ages 50 and over. The Division provides support and assistance to 94 golden age clubs that are conveniently located throughout Baltimore City. These clubs meet in recreation centers, senior apartment buildings, schools and churches. Club programs consist of parties, seasonal special events, guest speakers, crafts, exercise, trips, etc., depending on the interests of each particular club. Call the Senior Citizens Division to locate the closest golden age club to your neighborhood.

The Senior Citizens Division sponsors many monthly citywide special events and programs designed to bring all Baltimore City seniors together for fun and fellowship. Included in these events are luncheons, dances, crab feasts, talent shows, health fairs, bingo parties, fashion shows, boat excursions, picnics, museum tours, dinner theater outings, cooking contests and a day at Pimlico Race Track. Group transportation to these events is always included in the ticket price. For a list of upcoming events, please call (410) 396-2920.

The Senior Citizens Division also operates:

Clarence “Du” Burns Arena

Mike Woodard, Sports Facility Director
1301 S. Ellwood Ave.
Baltimore, MD 21224
(410) 396-4202
Mike.Woodard@BaltimoreCity.gov

The Clarence “Du” Burns Arena Indoor/Outdoor Sports Complex includes the “Du” Burns Arena, Bonvegna Field, Dypski Park and the offices of the Baltimore Blast. The “Du” Burns Arena is named after Clarence DuBurns, the first African American mayor of Baltimore City. The facility opened in 1991 and includes an indoor artificial turf field, 183 by 85 feet, with dasher boards, plexi-glass and netting. There is seating for 650 spectators, a concession stand and arena store onsite. The arena is host to numerous sports, leagues, activities and shows.

Dominic “Mimi” DiPietro Ice Rink

200 S. Linwood Ave.
Baltimore, MD 21224
(410) 396-9392

The Dominic “Mimi” DiPietro Ice Rink

opened its doors to the public in 1968 as an outdoor skating facility. It was originally called the Patterson Park Ice Rink. The rink was renamed the Dominic “Mimi” DiPietro Ice Rink in 1986 for the long-time, charismatic councilman.

In 1990, the ice rink was enclosed with a dome structure. This allowed the ice rink to extend the season from mid-fall through early spring. It also allowed the ice rink to expand its programs. The ice rink features public sessions, ice hockey, broomball, ice skating sessions and sled hockey. It also offers birthday parties, group rates and private rentals. The rink is full-sized, measuring 200 by 85 feet. There is bleacher seating, a concession stand, skate shop and a freestanding fireplace in the main lobby. Dominic “Mimi” DiPietro Ice Rink was voted the ‘Best of Baltimore’ by Baltimore Magazine. The rink is the home of several ice hockey teams in the area.

Patterson Park Boat Lake

Eastern and Milton avenues
Baltimore, MD 21224
(410) 396-9392

The Patterson Park Boat Lake was created during grading operations in 1864 when extensive earth-moving work was performed to remove military emplacements and to fill ravines. Baltimoreans began to spontaneously use the Lake as a skating pond in 1865. The Board of Public Park Commission acknowledged the benefit of expanding the Lake to accommodate skating as well as boating. Today, the lake is a combination of open water and wetland habitat for fish, waterfowl and songbirds.

William J. Myers Soccer Pavilion
Kay Overton, Sports Facility Director
4300 West Bay Ave.
Baltimore, MD 21225
(410) 396-5782

The Myers Pavilion is named in honor of William J. Myers, a former city councilman of Baltimore City. The pavilion opened in 1986. The Men's Cup Tournament, Co-ed Cup Tournament, the Mayor's Holiday Tournament, Baltimore Blast Clinic and the in-house "Just for Fun" Leagues are just some of the many programs offered at the pavilion. So come out and have a ball!
